

The Archangel Series

Camael | The Judgement of God

Also Chamuel, Kemuel, Shemuel, Seraphiel, Camiel, Camiul, Khamael, Camniel, Cancel and Jahoel, he is a lesson in duality, being an angel of both Divine Love and Divine Justice. He is reputed to be the angel who holds the monster Leviathan in check. Camael presides over war, joy, happiness, contentment, and justice. He is Chief of the Order of Powers, one of the holy Sefiroth, an angel of the Presence, and ruler of the 3rd Heaven. He is depicted as wearing an iron helmet, green armor plates and a red tunic.

According to my research (which although it was vast, is not foolproof), here are the translations of what I believe to be the Hebrew words on the seal:

XAMAEΛ	CAMAEΛ	Means: "He Who Sees God"
ΜΙΛΧΑΜΑΗ	MILCHAMAH	War
ΑΘΑΝΑΤΟΣ	ATHANATOS	A name of God
ΣΑΒΑΟΘ	SABAOTH	"Armies of the Lord"

About The Series

Based on a combination of Christian, Judaic & Islamic legends & history, I was inspired to render these mysterious creatures in their more mysterious and dramatic light. All too often angels are depicted as "cute" or "docile", and I wanted a view of the warriors, the secret-keepers, the guides and messengers. Of course, this does fall under my basic love of archetypes, but my methodology reflected my thoughts to some degree, in that I wanted to capture the timeless conundrum of the angel concept. The particular class of Archangels seemed the best route for this thought, as most people are familiar with the big names, Michael and Gabriel. Along with Raphael, these are the only three angels mentioned by names in the Bible. I ended up with two distinct lists of what were classified as Archangels, one was a group of seven angels who stood before God, the second, a list of 15 (with several of the same names), was more divided by their jobs and personalities. I decided a series of seven would be quicker, though I better conceptualized the bigger list. Therefore I decided to produce the series in two phases, the first is the standard list of seven Archangels. Phase II will be the "complete" list of all 15 (the remaining eight).

The medium for these pieces, which I decided on almost as soon as I started considering the project, is somewhat peculiar. They are rendered as fairly detailed pencil drawings, scanned & altered in Photoshop (mostly just the glow effect), then I add the Angelic Seal and other touches in the background and print it in dull brown ink on parchment paper. The result is a nice "ancient-scroll" impression which is very appropriate. The seals and "signatures" are used in elements of the image, as well as Celestial Angelic Script translations of their names and representations. The seals are recreated in a vector-graphics program and the words are produced "Symbol" font, which is essentially Greek.

Below is an outline of the series, as planned, based on the research and my interpretations. Enjoy!
